

Commercial Law

Our lawyers possess the knowledge to fulfill, in a promptly manner, all the required formalities by law in the establishment of a business within the Republic of Panama.

We advise on various commercial issues, particularly in the preparation and execution of domestic and / or international contracts. At the same time, we have a large experience in purchase-sale agreements, real and personal guarantees, escrow agreements, factoring, franchises, financial leases, among others.